

Guest Code of conduct

The Camberley all night cafe is staffed solely by volunteers with a true heart for people in need, such as the hungry and the homeless and we are supported purely by charitable donations from local people, volunteers and our own fundraising and local businesses.

Please read our code of conduct thoroughly, we insist our customers agree to abide by these guidelines, the rules are simple and we want everyone to enjoy their time with us and to feel safe and secure at all times both as a volunteer and as a customer or first time visitor.

NO DRUGS

Our drugs policy is a zero tolerance one. Any drug usage or suspected drug usage, dealing or possession at the cafe and immediate vicinity of the cafe will result in an immediate ban and the police being called.

NO ALCOHOL

The cafe operates a ZERO tolerance approach to alcohol being consumed or brought on the premises or customers drinking alcohol of any kind in or near the immediate vicinity of the all night cafe.

NO OFFENSIVE WEAPONS

No offensive weapons may be brought to the cafe or to the immediate vicinity of the cafe. If a weapon is brought or suspected to have been brought to the cafe the police will be called.

NO ANTI SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR

The Camberley all night cafe will not tolerate any form of anti social behaviour whatever form it takes, whether that be threatening another person, shouting, swearing, stealing or making another person feel afraid and vulnerable.
